

History

The OAKLAND ART ASSOCIATION is a nonprofit organization supported by its professional members and patrons. Founded and incorporated in 1957, OAA is a member of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce.

Outreach

The primary purpose of the OAKLAND ART ASSOCIATION is to foster and promote the cultivation of visual arts. OAA is committed to sponsoring events that benefit both the community and its membership and strives to create opportunities for members' artwork to be viewed and enjoyed by the public. OAA (a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization) directs all sales commissions and donations from our members, patrons, and other sources toward our Grant Program, which in turn offers monetary support to local visual art education programs.

Exhibits

Of special interest to artists and individuals are the group exhibits of OAA Member work at various locations in Oakland and surrounding areas. In addition, exhibits of individual member artists' work are on going at several locations in the East Bay.

Membership

Artist memberships in the OAKLAND ART ASSOCIATION are open to Bay Area fine artists through an application review process. Patron memberships are also available for non-artists who wish to support visual arts in the community. For an application or additional membership information, please contact OAKLAND ART ASSOCIATION at the address listed to the left.

You're Invited!
